

New Leasing /Marketing Specialist Joins Capitol Places

COLUMBIA, S.C. – Capitol Places, one of Columbia’s most successful downtown real estate development companies, is pleased to announce that Alyson L. Bullock has joined the firm as a leasing and marketing specialist

“I’m proud to be part of a company that believes so passionately in the revitalization of downtown Columbia,” says Bullock. “I’m looking forward to being involved with everything Capitol Places has planned for the future.”

Ms. Bullock joined Capitol Places after spending more than a year as a leasing agent for the Columbia branch of the management company Capstone, Inc.

“Alyson will play a key role in the marketing and leasing of our 4 city center locations,” said Chris Chessick, director of operations for Capitol Places. “Her interaction with current and future residents provides us with a first hand look at the urban dweller and what attracts them to our buildings. That insight is priceless,” said Chessick.

Bullock is a recent graduate from the University of South Carolina where she earned a Bachelor of Science degree in both Marketing and Management along with a minor in Women’s Studies. Raised in Columbia, SC, Bullock is also a graduate of Irmo High School.

Over the next several years, Capitol Places will continue to build and renovate in downtown Columbia with current plans to exceed 500 residential units.

By September, when the Barringer building’s 75 apartments are completed, Capitol Places will have 168 unique city-center apartments each with its own distinct character and style. All are a short walk to downtown businesses, health care and educational facilities, places of worship, libraries, museums, historic and cultural points of interest, parks and recreation, shopping, fine dining and nightlife.

Capitol Places was formed in 1998 to develop, rent and manage apartments in downtown Columbia, South Carolina with a focus on historic buildings. After the successful renovation of some of Columbia’s most historic but vacant buildings, particularly on Main St., Capitol Places also began developing and selling residential condominiums.

Capitol Places is a proud recipient of the Ainsley Hall Award for outstanding corporate contribution in the promotion of the history of Columbia.
